My condolences go out to Steve's Family and Friends! My Thoughts and Prayers 🙏 are with you all! The pain of loosing a loved one does not go away, but it does get easier to deal with day by day, year by year!

Just please all of you the more you talk about Steve and the good & bad times with each other the easier it is to process and the better you will all feel! Nobody in my family wanted to talk about my Mom after she passed except for me so I had a really bad time and went into a very deep depression I never want to see anyone go through what I did & once in a while still do all because I never talked to anyone in my family about it. So please I am begging you talk to each other it will help you all tremendously!

I Love you all!

Love Always
